

STATE OF OREGON
DEPARTMENT OF CONSUMER AND BUSINESS SERVICES
INSURANCE DIVISION

In the Matter of John V. Liller.

) FINAL ORDER
) Case No. INS 02-10-023

The Director of the Oregon Department of Consumer and Business Services (director) commenced this administrative proceeding, pursuant to Oregon Revised Statutes (ORS) 731.256, to take enforcement action against John V. Liller (Liller).

On January 15, 2003, the director issued a Notice of Proposed Action, pursuant to ORS 183.415 and related rules. The notice informed Liller that the director proposed to take certain enforcement action against Liller, that Liller was entitled to a hearing, and that Liller had to request a hearing in writing within 21 days if Liller wanted a hearing. The notice also informed Liller that the record of the proceeding then to date, including the designated portion of the Insurance Division's file on Liller, would automatically become part of the contested case record for purposes of proving a prima facie case if Liller did not request a hearing within the time allowed to make the request.

The director did not receive a request for a hearing.

The director reviewed the designated portion of the Insurance Division's investigation file on Liller and found that it proves a prima facie case.

Therefore, director now makes the following final decision in this proceeding in accordance with ORS 731.248 and 183.470, and related rules.

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

Licensing

Liller has been licensed in Oregon as a nonresident individual agent from 4/15/94 to 4/30/97, from 4/20/98 to 4/30/01, and since 7/10/01. Liller's license number is 128455. Liller's last recorded address was in Reno, Nevada.

Not Licensed in Resident State

Liller is subject to disciplinary action pursuant to ORS 744.074(1)(i) because of the following circumstances. Liller is a resident of Nevada. On 4/26/02 the Insurance Commissioner of the State of Nevada issued an order, number 02.049, inter alia, immediately revoking Liller's resident insurance agent license in that state. The Insurance Commissioner took the action because Liller (1) received premium but failed to deposit it into a bank account separate from other money, (2) received premium but failed to send it to the insurer, (3) received premium but used it for personal purposes, (4) falsely stated on four different applications for a resident insurance agent license in that state filed between 6/2/80 and 8/7/86 that he had not been arrested or convicted of a crime when he had been arrested for or convicted on five occasions between 4/73 to 9/98 of the crimes of driving while under the influence of intoxicants, embezzlement, grand larceny, spousal battery, and misdemeanor criminal contempt.

Order

Pursuant to ORS 744.074(1), the Oregon license as an insurance agent issued to Liller shall be revoked on the date of this order.

Notice of Judicial Review

Pursuant to ORS 183.480 and 183.482, Liller may request the Oregon Court of Appeals to review this order by filing a written petition for judicial review with the court within 60 calendar days after the date this order was sent to Liller.
