 16 against MILLENNIUM FINANCIAL SERVICES INC (the "Respondent").

17 On May 11, 2009, Respondent was mailed true copies of the Proposed Order by

1 NOW THEREFORE, after consideration of the Division's investigative file and 2 related documents, the Director hereby issues the following Findings of Fact,
3 Conclusions of Law, and Final Order.

4 FINDINGS OF FACT

5 The Director FINDS that:

6 1. ("Respondent") is or was engaged in Oregon residential mortgage lending, 7 operating from a principal place of business located at 13223 VENTURA BLVD #G,
8 STUDIO CITY, CA 91604. Respondent obtained a license ML-4238 to engage in 9 Oregon residential mortgage transactions that was effective in 2008.

10 2. ORS 59.860(3) requires that the Division obtain annual reports from licensed 11 Oregon mortgage bankers and brokers concerning their residential mortgage lending 12 activities. OAR 441-865-0025 defines the data required to be included in those reports
13 and sets the deadline for filing them. The deadline for licensees to file mortgage 14 lending annual reports was March 31, 2009.

15 3. On or about February 5, 2009, the Division activated a website 16 (<https://www4.cbs.state.or.us/exs/dfcs/mlrpt/>) for licensees to use to file their annual 17 reports. The Division posted a link to that website from the Division home page along 18 with information on the annual report requirement. In addition, on February 6, 2009, 19 the Division also posted a prominent notice on its Mortgage Lending Section website 20 (http://www.dfcs.oregon.gov/mortgage\_lending.html).

21 4. On or about February 6, 2009, an e-mail was sent to all the valid e-mail addresses
22 the Mortgage Lending Section had for entities with a license at any time in 2008 23 reminding them of the requirement to file the report and providing information on how to 24 do so. The list of e-mail addresses was tracked on a spreadsheet (the "Annual Report 25 Spreadsheet") and saved on the Division's hard drive. Each "undeliverable" e-mail 26 address notice received was tracked on the Annual Report Spreadsheet. When the

1 Division received notice that the e-mail should be forwarded to a different address, a
2 Division employee forwarded the e-mail to the new address provided. This information
3 was also tracked on the Annual Report Spreadsheet.

4 5. On or about February 6, 2009, a letter was sent to all active licensees that had a 5 license any time in 2008 informing them of the requirement to file an annual report.

6 6. On March 9, 2009, another e-mail was sent to those entities for which the Division
7 had a valid e-mail address, with a license at any time in 2008, but that had not yet filed 8 an annual report. Again, the Division tracked those e-mails that were returned as 9 "undeliverable" and a Division employee forwarded e-mails as directed. This 10 information was tracked on the Annual Report Spreadsheet.

11 7. On March 25, 2009, a final e-mail was sent to those entities the Division had a 12 valid e-mail address for that had not yet filed an annual report. The Division tracked 13 those e-mails that were returned as "undeliverable" and forwarded e-mails as directed.
14 This information was tracked on the Annual Report Spreadsheet.

15 8. On April 1, 2009, a final letter was sent to all active licensees that currently hold a 16 mortgage banker / broker license in Oregon and had a license at some point in 2008, 17 but had not yet filed an annual report. The letter reminded the licensees of the 18 obligation to file an annual report and of the $100 per day penalty for failure to file the 19 report.

20 9. As of June 15, 2009, Respondent had not filed an annual report for mortgage 21 lending business conducted in 2008 and has not contacted the Division to discuss the 22 issue.

23 CONCLUSION OF LAW

24 1. By failing to file an annual report with the Director by March 31, 2009, Respondent
25 violated ORS 59.860(3) and OAR 441-865-0025.
