Re: Party: Country Mutual Insurance Company
Case No.: INS 03-08-020

Dear Ms. Potts:

As you may recall, on July 30, 2004, we issued a stipulation and final order assessing the party a civil penalty, and then suspending the civil penalty subject to the results of a follow up market conduct examination of the party. The order indicated that if we find that the party corrected certain violations then the civil penalty shall be withdrawn.

Subsequently, we conducted a follow up market conduct examination as of March 15, 2005 and issued a final report of the examination. The report found, in relevant part, that the party sufficiently corrected the violations during the period examined.

Therefore, the civil penalty is withdrawn.

Thank you for your company's cooperation in this process.

If you have any questions or I can be of any other assistance, please contact me.

Sincerely,
Mitchel D. Curzon
