	)	Case No. INS 05-08-003

STIPULATION

The Director of the Oregon Department of Consumer and Business Services (director) commenced this administrative proceeding, pursuant to Oregon Revised Statutes (ORS) 731.256, to take enforcement action against Paul A. Wieck (Wieck).

Wieck enters into this stipulation pursuant to ORS 183.415(5).

Wieck waives all rights relative to an administrative hearing and judicial review thereof.

Wieck stipulates to the following facts, conclusions, and action, and consents to issuance of a final order incorporating this stipulation.

Facts and Conclusions

Licensing Information

Wieck has been licensed in Oregon as a resident individual insurance producer since 8/5/1999. Wieck's last recorded residence and business addresses are located in Portland, Oregon.

Used a Fraudulent, Coercive, or Dishonest Practice in Business

Wieck violated ORS 744.074(1)(h) in 44 instances by engaging in the following conduct. ORS 744.074(1)(h) prohibits a person licensed in Oregon as an insurance producer from using fraudulent, coercive or dishonest practices, or demonstrating incompetence, untrustworthiness or financial irresponsibility in the conduct of business in this state or elsewhere. At all relevant times, Wieck was appointed as an agent by American Family Life Assurance Company of Columbus (AFLAC). Wieck was authorized to solicit and receive applications for insurance provided or to be provided by AFLAC. From 2/23/04 to 9/13/04, Wieck completed and sent to AFLAC 44 applications for insurance. The applications were from persons who did not exist, or who existed but did not apply for the insurance, and contained false names, addresses, dates of birth, social security numbers, and telephone numbers. These applications were placed under seven legitimate payroll groups as add-ons. AFLAC paid Wieck $5,698.88 in commissions based on the 44 applications that were received from Wieck. No premiums were collected by AFLAC from the seven payroll groups and AFLAC was able to recover from Wieck the $5,698.88 in commissions paid to him.

Action

Pursuant to ORS 744.074(1), Wieck's Oregon resident insurance producer license is revoked on the date of the final order.
