Filed Special Oregon Schedule P Late

United National Casualty is subject to enforcement action pursuant to ORS 731.574(1) because of the following circumstances. ORS 731.574(1) requires a person who is licensed in Oregon as an insurer to file with the director an annual financial statement, and permits the director to require additional information. In the annual statement instructions, the director requires an insurer that is authorized to transact workers' compensation insurance in Oregon to file additional information about the insurer's workers' compensation premiums and losses during the preceding calendar year and calculate the amount of the insurer's special workers' compensation deposit required by ORS 731.628. An insurer is required to file the additional information even if the insurer did not have any premiums or losses in Oregon during the preceding calendar year. The additional information is reported on a form called a Special Oregon Schedule P. A Special Oregon Schedule P is required to be filed by March 1 of each year for the preceding calendar year. Pursuant to ORS 174.125, if the normal due date falls on a date that the director is not open for business, then the actual due date is the next date that the director is open for business. United National Casualty was required to file its Special Oregon Schedule P for 2007 by 3/3/08. However, United National Casualty filed its Special Oregon Schedule P on 3/19/08, 16/ days late.
