

insurer to do otherwise. If a member insurer recoups the assessment from its insureds, then ORS 734.579(2) requires the insurer to annually certify to the director certain information about its recoupment assessment. OAR 836-031-0855(8) requires a member insurer to file a certification on a form specified by the director by June 1 of each year following the completion of a 12-month recoupment assessment period referred to in OAR 836-031-0855(6). Pursuant to ORS 174.125, if the normal due date falls on a date that the director is not open for business, then the actual due date is the next date that the director is open for business. In 2008, June 1 was on a Sunday so certifications for 2007 were due on 6/2/08. At all relevant times, QBE was a member insurer of OIGA, was assessed by OIGA, recouped the assessment from its insureds, completed a recoupment assessment period, and filed its certification. However, QBE filed by e-mail its certification for 2006 on August 18, 2008, 442 days late and its certification for 2007 also on 8/18/08, 77 days late.
