Facts and Conclusions

Licensing Information

AIG Casualty has been licensed in Oregon as a foreign insurer since 1/20/48. AIG Casualty's last recorded principal business address is located in New York, New York.

Filed OIGA Recoupment Assessment Certification Late

AIG Casualty is subject to enforcement action pursuant to Oregon Administrative Rules (OAR) 836-031-0855(8) because of the following circumstances. ORS 734.550 requires a person that is licensed in Oregon as an insurer and authorized to transact property and casualty insurance to be a member of the Oregon Insurance Guaranty Association (OIGA). ORS 734.570(3) requires OIGA to assess its member insurers an amount necessary to pay OIGA's expenses. If OIGA assesses its member insurers, then ORS 734.579(1) requires a member insurer to recoup the assessment from its insureds, unless OAR 836-031-0855 permits the insurer to do otherwise. If a member insurer recoups the assessment from its insureds, then ORS 734.579(2) requires the insurer to annually certify to the director certain information about its recoupment assessment.

OAR 836-031-0855(8) requires a member insurer to file a certification on a form specified by the director by June 1 of each year following the completion of a 12-month recoupment assessment period referred to in OAR 836-031-0855(6). At all relevant times, AIG Casualty was a member insurer of OIGA, was assessed by OIGA, recouped the assessment from its insureds, completed a recoupment assessment period, and filed its certification. AIG Casualty was required to file its certification for 2008 by 6/1/09. AIG Casualty filed its certification for 2008 on 6/30/09, 29 days late.
