INSURANCE DIVISION

In the Matter of LISA M. PERRY,	)	FINAL ORDER
Licensee.	)	Case No. INS 15-07-023

On August 3, 2015, the Director of the Oregon Department of Consumer and Business Services ("Director"), by and through the Insurance Division, properly served notice ("Notice") on Lisa M. Perry ("Perry") that the Director intended to issue an order revoking Perry's Oregon nonresident insurance producer license ("License") pursuant to ORS 744.074 for having failed to timely report to the Director administrative action taken against Perry in another jurisdiction.

The Notice offered Perry an opportunity for a hearing if requested within 21 days of service of the Notice. The Notice further informed Perry that if a hearing was not conducted because Perry did not timely request a hearing or otherwise defaulted, then the designated portion of the Director's file and all materials submitted by Perry in this case would automatically become part of the contested case record for the purpose of proving a prima facie case.

The Director did not receive from Perry a request for a hearing and did not conduct a hearing.

The Director finds that the record of this proceeding proves a prima facie case.

NOW THEREFORE, after considering the relevant portions of the Director's file relating to this matter, the Director enters the following Order:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Perry was licensed in Oregon as a nonresident individual insurance producer from November 2012 to April 2015. Her License has been expired since April 30, 2015. Perry's NAIC national producer number is 10705888.

2. Perry was the subject of an administrative action in Connecticut for misrepresenting that a discount health plan was health insurance. The health plan only provided for discounted health care services from participating providers. The action concluded on October 28, 2013 with revocation of Perry's Connecticut producer license.

3. Perry was the subject of an administrative action in California for failing to report the Connecticut action. The action concluded on February 25, 2014 with revocation of Perry's California license and licensing rights effective March 27, 2014.

4. Perry was the subject of an administrative action in South Carolina for failing to report the Connecticut and California actions. The action concluded on June 16, 2014 with revocation of Perry's South Carolina producer license.

5. Perry did not report any of the abovementioned administrative actions to the Director within 30 days after the date of the final disposition of each respective matter.

ULTIMATE FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Perry has been subject to administrative actions in Connecticut, California, and South Carolina.

2. Perry's licenses have been revoked in Connecticut, California, and South Carolina.

3. Perry did not report any of the abovementioned administrative actions to the Director within 30 days after the date of the final disposition of each respective matter.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

1. Pursuant to ORS 744.011, the expiration of Perry's License did not deprive the Director of jurisdiction to proceed with action or disciplinary proceedings against Perry.

2. Perry violated ORS 744.089(1), an insurance law, by failing to report an administrative action taken against Perry in another jurisdiction to the Director not later than the 30th day after the date of the final disposition of the matter. Under ORS 744.074(1)(b), the Director may revoke Perry's License for violating an insurance law.

3. Pursuant to ORS 744.074(1)(i), the Director may revoke Perry's License because Connecticut, California, and South Carolina have revoked Perry's licenses.

ORDER

Pursuant to ORS 744.074(1), Perry's nonresident individual insurance producer license is revoked on the date of this order.

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO JUDICIAL APPEAL

You are entitled to judicial review of this order in accordance with ORS 183.482. You may request judicial review by filing a petition with the Court of Appeals in Salem, Oregon, within 60 days from the date this order is served.
