

CHECK CASHING BUSINESS INITIAL LICENSE APPLICATION

Check cashing licensing requirement:

Unless location is determined exempt as provided in ORS 697.502 and OAR 441-755-0110, a person may not conduct, purport to conduct, or advertise that a location conducts a check cashing business. NOTE: The check cashing licensing requirements do not apply to a money transmitter operating with a valid Oregon license. The limits on fees, fee posting requirements, recordkeeping, and other requirements of the law do apply to licensed money transmitters.

General information maximum fees and receipt requirement

Fees allowed to be charged by ORS 697.520.

- Up to 2 percent of the check's face value for a government check, such as a tax return check or a payroll check issued by a federal, state, city, or county agency, if consumer presents a valid and current photo ID.
- Up to 3 percent of the value of the payment instrument, or $5, whichever is higher, when the check was issued by a government entity other than a government entity within Oregon, if the consumer presents a valid and current photo ID.
- Up to 10 percent for other types of checks, including insurance checks, money orders, or personal checks, or $5, whichever is more.
- No licensed check casher can charge more than $100 to cash a check.
- Under Oregon law, all licensees must post their license and their fees in plain view of customers.

See Page 6 of the application for a complete list of Oregon's maximum fees.

Receipt content

A licensed check cashing business must provide customers a receipt with the following information for each payment instrument cashed:

- Name of the check cashing business
- Date of the transaction
- Face value of the check
- Fee charged

An application will be deemed abandoned if the applicant fails to provide requested information within 30 days of a warning that the application is about to be deemed abandoned. Application fees are not refundable. (OAR 441-755-0120)

Renewal two-year: The renewal fee is currently $150. Once the license is renewed, it will be valid for two calendar years. A renewal form will be mailed approximately four weeks prior to the date of renewal.

Annual report (due April 1): An annual report is required to be completed by April 1 each year. The report requires disclosure of the number of checks cashed, the dollar amount of the checks cashed, and the total amount of fees collected for the prior calendar year. You may obtain the annual report form on the website: www.dfr.oregon.gov. It is your responsibility to submit the required annual report. You may be fined or have your license revoked if you do not comply.

Governing statutes and rules: Oregon Revised Statute 697.500 – 697.555 and Oregon Administrative Rules Division 755

Attach and submit the following information

- A copy of your business name registration with the Oregon Office of the Secretary of State, Business Registry Section (503-986-2200). All business names used in Oregon must be registered with the Secretary of State.
- A business plan for your current business that describes the type of products and services you will be offering. Common examples: money wiring, groceries, prepay phones, clothing, and deli food.
- A complete statement of your current financial condition, including most recent balance sheet and profit-and-loss statement. If this is a newly formed business, you may provide a written explanation of the source of funds that will be used for check cashing activity and the past three months of bank statements instead of a balance sheet and profit-and-loss statement.
- A copy of your proposed fees to be charged for cashing payment instruments. If these fees vary by location on this application, provide the information specific to each location.
- Complete the attached form, Criminal Background and Credit Check Authorization, for each of the following: president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and directors of a corporation, partners, member, or persons with equivalent titles or duties. Also include any person who has the direct or indirect ownership or right to control 25 percent or more of the voting shares of the corporation, or the ability to change the principles, policies, or practices of the organization. See Page 5.
- Provide a work history resume of the past five years of work experience for each owner, partner, director, and principal.
