

Do your prescription drugs cost too much?

Oregon Prescription Drug
Affordability Board

The board's mission is to protect Oregonians from the high costs of prescription drugs.

PDAB wants to hear from you

Get involved! Share your input about prescription drug costs by:

- Writing a public comment letter to the board
- Speaking at a board meeting
- Filling out a questionnaire

How do prescription drug costs affect you?

- Have you been unable to afford medications you need?
- Are your prescription drugs covered by your health insurance plan?
- Does your insurance company require trying other medications before covering the drug prescribed by your doctor?

Share your story to inform the board's work. Go to the PDAB website, dfr.oregon.gov/pdab, or scan the QR code below.

Learn what Oregon is doing about drug costs

The Oregon Prescription Drug Affordability Board (PDAB) was created by the Oregon Legislature to protect Oregonians and the Oregon healthcare system from the high costs of prescription drugs.

The board holds monthly online meetings that are open to the public.

How does PDAB help?

The board reviews prescription drugs with high costs to the Oregon healthcare system and Oregon patients.
