- We just took a big step to helping our family recover from a disaster. For National Preparedness Month we built a home inventory. There is no way we would have recalled all of our valuables if we lost everything without it. Now it's time to get our insurance checkup. dfr.oregon.gov/preparenow
- September is National Preparedness Month and this is Home Inventory Week. Building a home inventory and making sure your insurance is up-to-date are essential tasks to prepare for a disaster. Don't believe me? Check out this Oregonians' experience from a recent wildfire. Wildfire interview video
- September is National Preparedness Month. Please take time to prepare your family for disaster by doing two simple tasks.
  1. Build a home inventory
