INSTRUCTIONS FOR SECURITY DEPOSIT GENERAL RELEASE

Before the Division of Financial Regulation will review your request for release of a non-workers' compensation security deposit, your company must submit the following:

1. Letter with routing instructions and a complete description of the asset to be released, including CUSIP number and par value.
2. Completed Security Deposit Release General Request, Form 440-3461, for non-workers' compensation.

Faxed documents are acceptable to meet the deadline. However, the division must receive the originals before funds will be released. Requests for release of securities must be received by June 1.

NOTE: Per ORS 731.648(2) surety deposits are kept for a period of three years after discontinuing business.

If you have questions about the amounts of deposit or deposit requirements, call the division at 503-947-7982 to ask for the security deposit analyst in the Insurance Institutions section or email web.inscomp@dcbs.oregon.gov.
